You will receive important information on the German insurance system during the Welcome Day on Wednesday, 9th of October.

Enrollment session

Please bring your passport, your admission notification and all other documents mentioned on the admission notification as well as a passport photo.

Finance Campus Tour

Senior Finance students will guide you around the university campus to help you become familiar with the main facilities.

Get-Together

You will receive a separate invitation for this event.

Official Welcome

The president welcomes new students to the university (German only).

Introduction to Measure Theory

The lecture is intended for all students who do not yet have any knowledge of Measure Theory, or who want to refresh it, making it ideal as a basis for later lectures.

Blue highlights subject-specific introductory events, yellow events by the International Office and green lectures.

If necessary, more information on the individual events will be provided separately.
